Bank of Uganda Conducts Business Continuity Exercise

KAMPALA, March 4, 2024 - The Bank of Uganda (BoU) is conducting a planned business continuity exercise starting today, March 4, 2024. This exercise assesses the BoU's preparedness to maintain critical operations in case of unforeseen disruptions.

Certain services will temporarily relocate from the BoU Headquarters in Kampala to the Jinja and Masaka currency branches during this exercise.

All essential services will remain available and accessible to stakeholders through these branches.

The BoU will provide regular updates throughout the exercise, including information on its duration and the resumption of services at the Headquarters.

We appreciate your understanding and apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.

For further information, please contact the coordinator:

Mrs Joyce Okello (jokello@bou.or.ug, 0312 392931 or 0417 302931)
