Circular to all Commercial Banks, Credit Institutions, Microfinance Deposit-Taking Institutions, and Forex Bureaus and Money Remittance Businesses

Paper £20 and £50 Banknotes

Information available on the Bank of England website indicates that paper £20 and £50 notes will cease to be used on September 30, 2022. The Bank of Uganda will continue to monitor this development and provide further guidance at an appropriate time. Detailed information is available on <https://www.bankofengland.co.uk/banknotes/exchanging-old-banknotes>

Market information received by Bank of Uganda is that some Commercial Banks, Credit Institutions, Microfinance Deposit-Taking Institutions, and Forex Bureaus and Money Remittance Businesses are turning away customers with paper £20 and £50 notes.

This is to inform you of this development and request that you:

- 1) Notify your respective customers accordingly.
- 2) Take the necessary actions to manage this development.
